Freedom of contract Wikipedia

Freedom of contract is the freedom of private or public individuals and groups (of any legal entity) to form nonviolent contracts without government restrictions. This is opposed to government restrictions such as minimum- or maximum-wage laws , competition laws , economic sanctions , restrictions on price fixing , or restrictions on contracting with second-class citizens or undocumented workers .

The doctrine of freedom of contract Law Teacher

The Principles of European Contract Law, however, state that this freedom is subject to the requirements of good faith, fair dealing and the mandatory rules established under the Principles. Accordingly, the law has intervened to guide parties as to which terms they can contract on to effectively balance the inequality in their bargaining power, and ensure optimum protection for the consumer who, most times, has limited expertise in the field.
