The Judgment (A Charley Sloan Courtroom Thriller) THE JUDGEMENT is a great posthumous legacy from William J. Coughlin, one of the top writers of legal procedural in the nineties. The much maligned and flawed Charley is a great protagonist and the support cast is one of the best ensemble companies to grace a novel. Though the story line initially appears to be contrived, in the hands of a master like Mr. Coughlin, it becomes a fast-paced

My Father William J. Coughlin, who died at the early age of 62, did not write this book. Although the publisher wants you to believe he wrote and finished this book on his death bed. This is completely untrue. The rights were sold by a family member to the publisher and another writer from the west coast was hired to write this. My
